

Title 11 Offenses and Nuisances
Chapter 1 State Statutes Adopted
Section 2 Penalties; Attempt; Parties to Acts

11-1-2

- (a) Penalty. In addition to the general penalty provisions of this Code in Section 1-1-6 or any other penalty imposed for violation of any Section of the Title, any person who shall cause physical damage to or destroy any public property shall be liable for the cost of replacing or repairing such damaged or destroyed property. The parent or parents of any unemancipated juvenile who violates Section 11-3-1 may also be held liable for the cost of replacing or repairing such damaged or destroyed property in accordance with the Wisconsin Statutes. Nothing in this Code of Ordinances shall prevent law enforcement authorities from referring violation of the provisions of this Title to the District Attorney's office in the interest of justice.
- (b) Attempt.
- (1) Whoever attempts to commit an act prohibited by Title 11 of the Code of Ordinances of the Village of Rudolph may be required to forfeit amounts not to exceed one-half (1/2) of the maximum penalty for the completed act.
  - (2) An attempt to commit an act prohibited by the ordinances in Title 11 requires that the actor have an intent to perform acts and attain a result which, if accomplished, would constitute a violation of these ordinances and that he/she does acts towards the commission of the violation which demonstrates unequivocally, under all the circumstances, that he/she formed that intent and would commit the violation except for the intervention of another person or some other extraneous factor.
- (c) Parties to Acts Prohibited in Title 11.
- (1) Whoever is concerned in the commission of an act prohibited by Title 11 of this Code of Ordinances, is a principle and may be charged with and convicted of the commission of said act although he/she did not directly commit it and although the person who directly committed it has not been convicted of some other act prohibited by these ordinances.
  - (2) A person is concerned in the commission of an act prohibited by these ordinances if he/she:
    - a. Directly commits the act; or
    - b. Intentionally aids and abets the commission of it; or
    - c. Is a party to a conspiracy with another to commit it or advises, hires, counsels, or otherwise procures another to commit it. Such party is also concerned in the commission of any other act which is committed in pursuance of the intended violation and which, under the circumstances, is the natural and probable consequence of the intended violation. This paragraph does not apply to a person who voluntarily changes his/her mind and no longer desires that the act be committed and notifies the other parties concerned of his/her withdrawal within a reasonable time before the commission of the violation so as to allow the others also to withdraw.
